SOURCE Izvestiya.BULGARIA CHANGES LAW ON TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

The Presidium of the People's Assembly decreed on 29 February 1952 that paragraph 2 of Article 1 of the law on Technical Schools and Establishments be changed to read as follows:

"Technical schools and establishments connected with a state or military secret will have decisions made by, and construction and supervision performed by, organs designated by the Council of Ministers."

The Ministry of Communal Economy and Public Works is entrusted with the execution of this decree.

On 31 January 1952, the Council of Ministers decreed that paragraph 2 of Article 1 in the Directive on Technical Schools and Establishments be changed to read as follows:

"Technical schools and establishments connected with a state or military secret, will be built, installed, and supervised by organs designated by the Council of Ministers."
